N.N. GHOSH SANATAN TEACHERS' TRAINING COLLEGE

Report on Farewell Programme

B.Ed. Batch 2024–26

DATE OF EVENT 08 September 2026	VENUE College Auditorium
ORGANISED BY B.Ed. 1st Year Students	LOCATION Jamuary, Kanke, Ranchi

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

A farewell programme was organised on 08 September 2026 at the College Auditorium to bid a warm and memorable farewell to the outgoing B.Ed. Batch 2024–26. The event was thoughtfully planned and executed by the B.Ed. 1st Year students with immense enthusiasm, affection, and respect for their senior peers.

INAUGURATION & KEYNOTE SPEECH

The programme commenced with the traditional lighting of the ceremonial lamp, seeking divine blessings for a bright and successful future for the graduating batch. This auspicious beginning was followed by a melodious Welcome Song presented by the B.Ed. 1st Year students.

The respected Mr. S. K. Dubey Sir addressed the gathering, offering inspiring words of encouragement and extending his heartfelt wishes to the outgoing batch as they prepare to step into their professional careers.

CULTURAL HIGHLIGHTS & PERFORMANCES

The cultural segment brought vibrancy, talent, and joy to the occasion. The sequence of events included key artistic performances:

Segment	Performers / Presenters	Details
Group Dance	Mansi and Group	Lively & energetic group dance performance
Faculty Address	Teaching Faculty	Heartfelt guidance, memories & blessings
Solo Dance	Rose	Graceful solo dance performance

EMOTIONAL REFLECTIONS & REMINISCENCE

The event turned emotional as students from the outgoing batch took the stage to share their personal experiences, cherished memories, and heartfelt gratitude towards the faculty members and their juniors. The auditorium atmosphere was filled with a blend of laughter, nostalgia, and affectionate moments as everyone reminisced about their multi-faceted journey throughout the B.Ed. programme.

CONCLUSION & BEST WISHES

The programme concluded with inspiring closing remarks, leaving a message of hope and optimism. The junior students expressed their deepest gratitude and wished their seniors abundance, success, happiness, and fulfillment in all their future endeavors.

Overall, the farewell programme was a beautiful celebration of memories, emotions, gratitude, and fellowship. It marked not merely the end of an academic chapter, but the beginning of an exciting new journey in the personal and professional lives of the B.Ed. Batch 2024–26.

> “Goodbyes are not the end; they are the beginning of new journeys, new dreams and new possibilities.”