1. Introduction

An Orientation Programme for the newly admitted students of the 2026–2028 session was organised at N.N. Ghosh Sanatan Teacher Training College on 26 October 2026, as per the notice issued by the Principal on 23 October 2026. Attendance was mandatory for all students of the session, and regular classes commenced from the same day. The programme was held in the multipurpose hall of the college.

2. Proceedings of the Programme

The programme was conducted by Vikas Vardhan. The proceedings were as follows:

- Welcome: All students of the new session were welcomed with a traditional tilak at the entrance of the hall, marking an auspicious beginning to the new session.
- Principal’s address: The Principal welcomed the students and delivered a motivational address, encouraging them to take their teacher-training journey with dedication, discipline and enthusiasm.
- Introduction of faculty and staff: Faculty members and non-teaching staff introduced themselves to the new students.
- Introduction of new students: Students of the new session gave their brief introductions.
- Experience sharing: Second-year B.Ed. students shared their experiences of the college and of their own B.Ed. course with the new batch, giving the freshers a clear idea of college life.
- Group photograph: The programme concluded with a group photograph of all present.

3. Dignitaries and Staff Present

The following were present on the occasion: Dr. Dhananjay Prasad (Principal), Dr. Bholanath Tiwari, Ismita Dungdung, Mani Sharma, Santosh Prasad (Librarian), Acharya Vivekanand (Yoga Instructor), Shri Santosh Dubey (Chief Admin Officer) and Pawan Rajak (Office Assistant).

4. Conclusion

The Orientation Programme was conducted successfully and in a cordial atmosphere. It helped the new students become familiar with the college, its faculty and staff, and its academic environment, and gave them a warm start to the 2026–2028 session. The programme ended with a group photograph.
